RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On August 4, 2022, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) Report, recommending that the Court find petitioner entitled to compensation specifically for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) and related sequelae, regarding which petitioner is entitled to a presumption of causation under the Vaccine Injury Table. ECF No. 44. The Court found petitioner entitled to compensation accordingly in an August 8, 2022 Ruling on Entitlement. ECF No. 45. Respondent now proffers that petitioner be awarded a lump sum of $156,150.68, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, for all damages available pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).<sup>1</sup> Of this total amount, $150,000.00 represents an award for actual and projected pain and suffering at net present value; $3,681.45 represents an award for past unreimbursed expenses; and $2,469.23 represents an after-tax net loss of earnings. Petitioner is a competent adult, and accordingly, guardianship documentation is not required.

<sup>1</sup> Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future pain and suffering, and future lost wages.

Petitioner has reviewed the foregoing and concurs. Petitioner agrees with the proffered award of $156,150.68.<sup>2</sup>
